

Name: _____ Date: _____

7th Grade Language Arts Midterm Exam Study Guide

The following concepts will be on your language arts midterm exam. In order to be best prepared for the exam, it is best to study old tests, quizzes, class notes, graphic organizers, etc. If you have any questions, please feel free to email me.

Vocabulary

Unit 1 adjacent alight disrupt foretaste hurtle interrogate sullen trickle truce vicious	Unit 2 available cater customary firebrand hazard homicide lubricate pelt poised unscathed	Unit 3 animated brood culminate drone goad indulge luster peevish seethe yearn	Unit 4 alliance bewilder controversial dishearten malignant mortify procure scurry virtual wince	Unit 5 anecdote consolidate docile entreat fugitive grimy iota radiant substantial ultimate	Unit 6 anonymous browse dupe frustrate grim marginal pending quaint snare utmost
---	---	---	---	--	---

Grammar

- simple and compound sentences
- independent and dependent clauses
- nouns (ch 2)
- fragments
- run on sentences
- punctuation (ch 11)

Reading

- "Thank You, Ma'am"
- "Nombres/Names"
- "Zebra"
- "Eleanor Roosevelt"
- "The War of the Wall"
- 5 Elements of a short story

Writing

Students will be asked to write a 1-2 paragraph essay on one of the following topics:

- Mrs. Ripley must cut the funding for several field trips this year at St. Pius. In an essay (NOT a letter), explain why she should spare your class's trip.
- Spelling, grammar, and punctuation count in this essay!